

FHH Telecom Law
May 2002

Orbital
Debris Cleanup

The FCC has proposed a requirement that all U.S. licensed satellite systems submit plans to mitigate orbital debris -- i.e., artificial objects orbiting the earth that are not functional spacecraft. The continuing increase in orbital debris raises concerns about the reliability and cost of space activities, including satellite communications.